Many schools are banning mobile phones from classrooms and playgrounds. There are a number of reasons for this. • Students play with their phones during class and do not pay attention to the lesson. • Students use their phones during tests or during class to get answers to difficult questions. "It's easy to put a mobile phone onto silent and to text a friend in the library in order to get the correct answers. This is unfair and hard to detect," says one teacher. • Students are using their mobile phones as a way of bullying other students. They send threatening or aggressive messages. 38. Which is the best title for the paragraph? (A) School Life (B) Taking Tests (C) Mobile Phones in School (D) In the Classroom

In North America (Canada and the US) Buy Nothing Day is the day after Thanksgiving Day. It is also one of the most important shopping days in North America. Buy Nothing Day is a protest against consumerism and the people who take part do not buy anything for one day. It is the idea of Kalle Lasn, the founder of Adbusters Media Foundation, a Canadian organization that educates people about consumerism and advertising. Kalle says: “People don’t buy things because they need them but because shopping has become a hobby. It is a way of life. We are using up the world’s natural resources to make things that no-one really wants or needs.” Now Buy Nothing Day is celebrated all over the world.

42. What date is Buy Nothing Day? (Hint: Thanksgiving is celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November in the United States.)

(A) 30th, November. (B) It is November 4th.
(C) It falls on a different date every year. (D) It is on Sunday.

43. What do people do on Buy Nothing Day?

(A) They buy a turkey. (B) They use up the natural resources.
(C) They buy nothing. (D) They go shopping.

44. According to Kalle Lasn, which of the following statements is correct?

(A) People buy things because they need them.
(B) Buy Nothing Day will help to preserve natural resources.
(C) Shopping is a good hobby.
(D) None of the above.

45. Which of the following statements is correct?

(A) Kalle protests against consumerism.
(B) Buy Nothing Day is the only one shopping day in North America.
(C) Buy Nothing Day is celebrated only in the United States.

Does chicken soup cure a cold? Scientific studies have not been able to show that this is true. Nevertheless, many people use it to treat their colds. Why is this? "Because it works," says Dr. Patty Wilson of New York. "My patients always say they feel better after treating their colds with a bowl of hot chicken soup. Scientific research may not show it, but my patients understand their own experience. And they know that chicken soup makes them feel better." Whether or not chicken soup really cures colds, it does have health benefits, especially when prepared with lots of vegetables, it is nourishing and it isn't fattening. It's also easy and inexpensive to make. Sick or healthy, chicken soup makes a delicious and healthful meal for anyone. 47. What is the purpose of this article? (A) To explain how to prepare chicken soup. (B) To present scientific research about chicken soup. (C) To compare different treatments for colds. (D) To discuss chicken soup as a treatment for colds. 48. According to Dr. Wilson, why do people treat colds with chicken soup? (A) Because it makes them feel better. (B) Because the doctor tells them to. (C) Because it has been proven by research. (D) Because it is cheap. 49. What is a benefit of eating chicken soup? (A) It is the cheapest food available. (B) It cures colds. (C) It is nourishing (D) You can buy it everywhere. 50. What is the writer's opinion of chicken soup? (A) It is too expensive. (B) It is a good treatment for a cold. (C) It has too much salt. (D) Only sick people should eat it.
